

Maritime News > Accidents > Container ship capsized, sank...

Container ship capsized, sank in Iranian port

Posted in Accidents by Mikhail Voytenko on Mar 19, 2019 at 12:56.

General cargo ship SL STAR capsized and sank along berth at Rajae Port, Bandar Abbas, Iran, Persian Gulf, in the morning Mar 19, while performing cargo operations. Reportedly discrepancies between dockers and crew led to stability loss, either cargo shifted or was wrongly loaded. The ship had 153 containers on board, some of them already surfacing and floating around. 14 crew, mainly Indians, are reported to be safe.

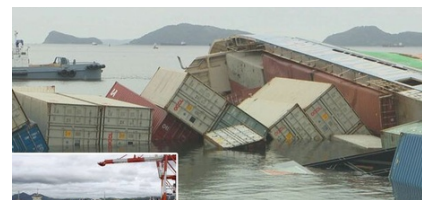

FleetMon Vessel Risk Rating: <https://www.fleetmon.com/services/vessel-risk-rating/>

Most viewed articles last week

Russian Navy HQ hit by UAV, Navy Day cancelled. UPDATE and ALERT

Container ship capsized, sank in port, Japan VIDEO